Phone: 021 – 738723
E-mail: elsatw.lam@gmail.com

COMPETITION RULES

- Length of the composition: 4 – 8 minutes total.
- Any Instrumental combination of quartet is permitted, but must include at least one CHINESE instrument.

APPLICATION MUST INCLUDE

- A paper copy of the score. Please do not write your name on any of the music score pages.
- A computer file of the composition, such as Sibelius or WAV file formats.

You may also provide an additional recording of your composition performance on Compact Disc (CD-R), but it is optional. Each movement should be ID coded as tracks. Concert performances will be accepted. Audio cassettes and DAT will not be accepted.

Please be aware that it is the composer's responsibility to choose performers who can truthfully represent the merits of the composition. MAA will only provide Chinese instrumentalists for a few rehearsals, and for the finalist's concert.

- A photocopy of the applicant's driver's license, passport or birth certificate as proof of age.
- A separate written and signed statement, by both the private teacher/school teacher, if any, and the applicant attest, that the composition and the recording are of the applicant and have not been edited.
- Application Form: please download the form from MAA Website: www.maa.net.nz

For NCEA students: you may use the same composition and performance to gain NCEA credits for composition task and group performance task. Please ask and consult with your music teacher for support.

JUDGING

The judges will have no indication as to the identity of the applications until the final round. Please do not write your name/s on the sheet music, computer file, CD or CD case. There should be no speaking on the recording, such as announcing of compositions.

Preliminary selection will be by score and recording audition. Ten semi-finalists and five finalists will be chosen by a committee. Letters of notification will be mailed by Monday, September 15, 2008. Final round will be held at Te Tuhi Centre for the Arts, 13 Reeves Rd, Pakuranga, Auckland on Saturday October 25, 2008. Finalists need to arrange for their own performers except for the Chinese Instrumentalists. Travel and other expenses will be the responsibility of the contestants. All contestants will accept the decision of the judges as final.

All scores and recordings will become the properties of the MAA and will not be returned unless a Courier Bag is provided.
